✓	Aff.Mail	Objection filed 6-18-13 by Ray A. Esparza , son, states he believes there is a more recent will. Objector had filed a petition for probate in 13CEPR00289, but dismissed his petition when a will was discovered. Petitioner has not allowed him to look through the decedent's papers. Petitioner obtained a dumpster and threw away a dumpster full of the decedent's papers and belongings. Objector is trying to find out who prepared the decedent's will and trust to determine if there is a more recent will.  Objector does not believe Petitioner should be the executor, as she has been dishonest with him and has taken assets of the estate. Objector states Petitioner withdrew $21,000.00 from the decedent's EECU account and deposited a check for $9,950.00 received from AAA and a $6,066.45 check into her account. These monies should be part of the estate. See attached copies. Objector believes there are other assets that Petitioner has taken. She is hiding documents and has destroyed or disposed of a dumpster full of documents. Objector is informed and believes that Petitioner has used the decedent's credit cards and gas cards. Objector objects to Petitioner's appointment as executor and requests that the Public Guardian be appointed.  Petitioner filed a declaration in response: Petitioner states she did deposit some of her mother's money into her accounts, but only as a temporary measure for safekeeping. At the instruction of her attorney, Petitioner has deposited the funds noted above into his law firm's client trust account until she is appointed as Executor and can open an estate account. Petitioner was informed that her brother (Objector) removed $1,742.81, $250, and $125 from three accounts. Petitioner was concerned he would remove other funds, so she protected them.
